SENIORS REMEMBER

That mixed-up day in our Sophomore year will always be remembered as one of our best days at E.H.S. – BETA CLUB INITIATION.

One of our most exciting days when we were Juniors was the day our CLASS RINGS arrived.

Marshals were proud to represent our class in the 1968 Graduation exercises.

FRONT ROW: Joyce Rhodes, Elaine Helms, Chief; Shirley Laughter, Loretta Parris, Teresa Reid, Olivia Rogers, Peggy Haynes. SECOND ROW: Kenny Hill, Steve Huntley, Edwin Nix.

In Williamsburg, Va.

In front of the Capitol.

At the Supreme Court Building.

Wherever we went, all 41 Seniors and 4 chaperons had an exciting time when we journeyed to the nation's capital on our SENIOR TRIP.

The RESTOVUS play and sing at Homecoming while the rest of us dance.

The basketball girls eat together on the day of a big game.

"Sounds of Silence" in the library as the students study.

1968 JUNIOR-SENIOR

Glue and glitter covered the gym as decorations were started.

A white wall of paper went up fast with everyone's help.

Chat and Elaine both led and pushed to keep work going.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

TO THE 1969 GRADUATING CLASS of EDNEYVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Let me extend to each of you the warm congratulations of a former teacher who, in spirit, shares your sense of achievement.

You have laid a foundation for useful and satisfying lives. Before you get on with the work, I would like to offer a few thoughts that you may find useful.

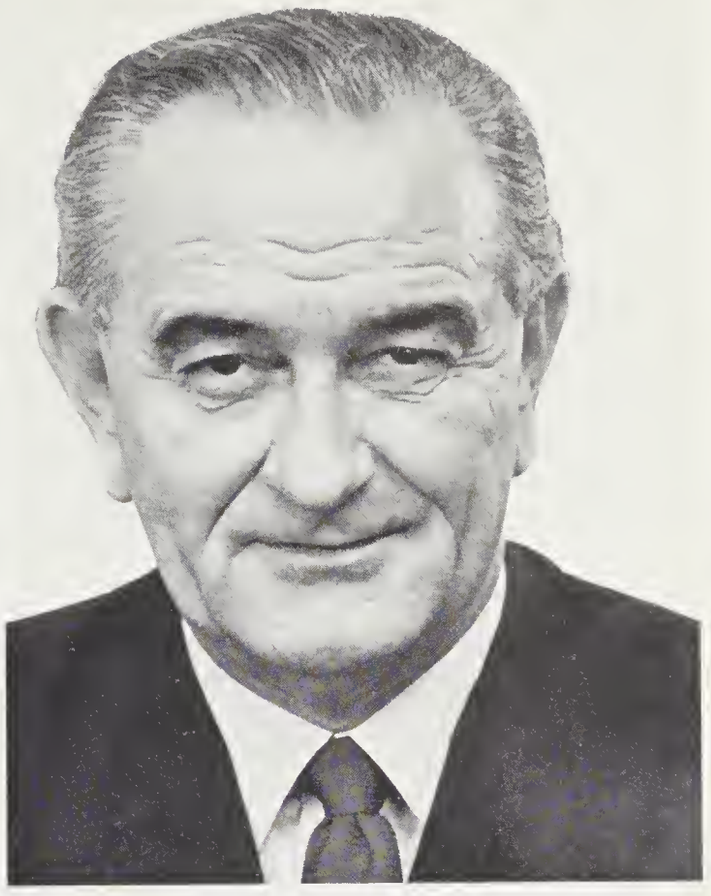
The passion to succeed, to achieve great things, is strongest in youth. Heed it. Do not squander your lives in petty pursuits. Commit yourselves now to a course that will strengthen you for the trails and opportunities of life.

Prize your individuality always. Whatever your place in society, whatever your work, do not surrender your self-reliance or compromise your independence. Liberty is and always will be your most precious possession. Guard it well.

Direct your energies, your talents, and your desires to what is best for yourselves and best for your country. We look to you to redeem what is wrong in our national past and to build what will be great in our national future.

Let this be your wish: that you may look back upon this graduation -- from no matter how many years hence -- with the conviction that you have treated all men with honesty and goodwill, that you have put your heart into your work, that you have done your best.

Lyndon B. Johnson



LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON
President of the United States
(1963 - 1968)

These words of the man who was President of the United States during our four years of high school, are sent with his congratulations and warm good wishes to the 1969 graduating class of Edneyville. Read his words well, Seniors of '69, and remember them. Accept the challenge they offer, and as you travel through life, carry the name of Edneyville proudly. May the love and honor of our Alma Mater stand as fond memories in the hearts of each of you. The world is yours, Class of '69,–be worthy of the challenges it offers.

In the hills, among the pine trees,
Reared against the sky;
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

May it ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail.
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Edneyville all hail.

Reddy To Rock

Reddy Kilowatt never misses a party. In fact, without him, things would be pretty dull. Think of it: no stereos, televisions, electric guitars or ice cubes.

Thanks to Reddy there are over 160 flameless electric servants that make modern living comfortable, economical and fun. When you have a home of your own, there will probably be even more than that.
